(Rev. 2023)

RREDP – Disputes & Grievances

- The RREDP will be used to resolve disputes related to the listed subjects, without the filing of grievances
- When a subject is under consideration in the RREDP, any grievance concerning that subject will be considered held in abeyance
- A copy of the held in abeyance grievance will be forwarded to the RREDP designees at the appropriate district or area level.
- Grievances filed will be held in abeyance behind lead case number 6X-21R-C 23233504

RREDP – District Level

- District Management Representative will annotate the dispute on the Route Evaluation Dispute Log and assign a District Control Number before meeting with the NRLCA Representative
  - Log should consist of Office, Finance, Route number, ZIP Code, category of dispute, and a column for final disposition

Rural Route Evaluation Dispute Log
Control Number	Office	Finance #	Route Number	Zip Code	Reason for Dispute	District Disposition	Date of Disposition
33573-01	Anytown	11-1234	006	33573	Missing carrier route bundle flats	Resolved - credit provided - see Form-2	5/8/2023
33573-02	Anytown	11-1234	006	33573	Missing Safety Service Talk Time	Resolved - credit provided - see Form-2	5/8/2023

- Control # should be ZIP Code plus number of dispute (first dispute would be 01, second would be 02, etc.)

RREDP – District Level

- District team will review all relevant factors that affect the credit associated in the PS Form 4241-A data field in dispute.
  - Ensure that the team notes any agreements annotated by the local parties
- District team will partner with local operations to include the district delivery support specialist, where needed, to obtain additional information
- Team will either agree to a resolution, agree no action will be taken, or will impasse the dispute and complete the top portion of Evaluation Dispute Form-2, providing an explanation for the final decision

RREDP – District Level

- If an agreement is not reached at the District level, Evaluation Dispute Form-1, Evaluation Dispute Form-2, and supporting documentation will be forwarded to the Area Director Labor Relations and the NRLCA designated representative
- Forward impasse disputes to the Area Director, Labor Relations or the designee, and the NRLCA Representative as soon as possible, but no more than 30 days of receipt at the district level

RREDP – District Level

- District LR will provide control number
- Consult with operations partners when additional information is needed
- Ensure completion of the top portion of Evaluation Dispute Form – 2, providing an explanation for each decision
